IV. Old Business

V. New Business

- a) Board resignation of Rachel Woodward. Board has appointed Dee Van Goethen as her replacement. Membership approval voted 25 for and 0 against.
- b) WSSA application has been renewed for 2012. This could help with grants for range approval.
- c) Proxy for TG meeting: letter has been sent to SASS and Don Maloff. Email sent to membership to send feedback to Hawkeye Sam. Don Maloff is not planning on attending.
- d) Bay signs are up and bay 18 has been turned into clay birds.
- e) Robert Webb passing, card has been sent to family and plaque for the board at the range is being made.
- f) Items that Don Maloff has that belong to the club need to be returned: fence post driver, computer boxes and software. Keys and all range property.
- g) Bays 13-18 improvement discussed, will talk to Mark Eisele about equipment and dirt. Need to find a way get rid of bales. Committee to head this will be Jerry Baker, Hank Van Goethen, Chris Hardy, Bill Capozella & Doug O'Dell. The committee will come up with costs and proposals.
- h) December Board meeting is 12-8-11 and membership is 12-15-11.
- i) Dee has been researching usage at the range; approximately 3.5 people use the range per day. We have 775 active gun club members; she suggests that we raise the membership to 1000 to accommodate the waiting list. Motion to go to 1000 gun club members plus cowboy members voted 25 for and 0 against.
- j) Phone at the range is recorded for range members only and needs to be checked regularly. Dee will do this. Message needs to be changed.
- k) Cowboy membership renewals will be sent out in the next week.
